West Side Club Ends Successful Year At Next Meeting Monday

Monday afternoon the Women's West Side Improvement Club will happily close another successful year of its existence. The meeting, which will be held in the Veterans Fireman's Hall, will be an important one. Many matters of extreme importance to the future of the club will be discussed, and the work of the past year commented on.

The club has considerable money in its coffers and worthy and desirable means of investing it may come up for discussion. The club members are well satisfied with their present meeting quarters, and though sites have been offered them, no plan for building a club house will come up.

During the past spring hundreds of seranumi have been set out along Richmond avenue marine boulevard, and quantities of seeds been sown in public spots in various parts of the west side district. With the creation of the tree planting commission by the city council, this work will be discontinued by the club.

Officers for the season to begin after the summer recess will be installed at the meeting. Refreshments, talks and toasts will finish off a delightful program that has been planned. Those to be installed are: Mrs. Lee Adams, president; Mrs. J. P. Eaton, vice president; Mrs. Paul Dunlap, secretary; Mrs. David Hopkins, treasurer; Mrs. Nettie Fulton, financial secretary.

OIL LANDS VALUED AT $15,000,000 ORDERED RESTORED TO GOVERNMENT

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Transactions of oil lands near McKittrick, Kern county, California, valued at $15,000,000, were declared to have been fraudulently patented by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company in a decision by Judge Robert S. Bean of the United States District Court of Oregon filed here today. The lands, part of a large area which is alleged to have been illegally claimed by the railroad company, are ordered restored to the government.

HAYWARD TO PLAY HERE TOMORROW

RUSSIANS ASSUME OFFENSIVE ON GALICIAN FRONT, PETROGRAD

LONDON, June 11.—Tonight dispatches from the Galician front indicate that the Russians have assumed the offensive and have inflicted the first serious reverse upon the Austro-Germans since the new Galician campaign opened more than a month ago.

An official announcement from Russian army headquarters recites a Russian success yesterday on the river Dniester east of Zurewno, where the Austro-Germans effected a crossing.

Rivalry over the supremacy of the Santa Fe and the Baracas teams will be given an airing this afternoon on the Luce diamond. Two o'clock is the time set for the starting gong and both captains are determined to get off to an early start, as experience between the two closely matched teams is that they are usually extra inning affairs.

The lineup:

TWO ALLEGED FORGERS JAILED

Officer Eigelman has become the terror of the bad check artists. Last night he caught two bad check suspects. Neither of the arrested men knew the other.

Eigelman spotted his first man in the afternoon. He followed him and at 7 o'clock, in company of Officer Shiley, arrested him. It was Shiley's first arrest.

Eigelman then went to dinner, and at 8 o'clock was on the trail of J. C. Baker, who had tried to pass a $5 check on a local clothier. Baker was under arrest at 9 o'clock. Both men are said to be clever check passers.

It Was A Regular Surprise Party At Lilly Home

It was a real surprise that the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Lilly, 1350 Wright avenue, gave them at their home last night. The motif of the surprise party was the tenth anniversary of their marriage, and tin novelties and devices aplenty were showered upon the astonished couple.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shuster, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shuster, Mrs. E. A. Jackson, Mrs. W. E. Shinkman, W. D. Smith, Mrs. W. W. Praver, Mrs. Gamble, Mrs. J. H. A very cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Would Complete Harbor Railway— Ask R.R. Board

The Castro Point Railway and Terminal Company will construct two additional miles of railway along the outer water-front if the Railroad Commission grants the company the right to lease $25,000 worth of stock.

In the application to the Railroad Commission the company explains that it wishes to provide a route to complete the line connecting with the belt railway at Winchaven.

The completion of the line will mean the realization of the project which two years ago started to connect by rail all of the wharves on the outer harbor. The project was halted by litigation then.

BOOSTERS OF WEST SIDE TO MEET

A meeting of west side boosters has been called for Wednesday evening in the office of H. G. Stidham, Washington and Richmond avenues. At that meeting the old Richmond Commercial Club will be revived.

Mayor Garrison was president of the Richmond Commercial Club and it was he who called the meeting. He will preside.

SUCCESSOR TO BERMINGHAM TO BE NAMED

A successor to John Bermingham Jr., Exposition commissioner from Contra Costa, will be appointed, according to officials.

It was thought at first that with a deputy commissioner, an assistant deputy, a janitor and a janitress to take care of the small booth of Contra Costa county in the California building, there would be no necessity of hiring another commissioner at a salary of $300 per month.

Howard Veale, among others, has been suggested as the next commissioner. He is at present employed as a deputy. It has been suggested that the new commissioner be paid $150 per month and that the other $150 be paid to Howard Veale to cover the expenses of showing visitors over the county.

A farewell dinner was given Bermingham Thursday night in Teichau Tavern, San Francisco. Bermingham goes East to take charge of a New Jersey powder factory.

Thomas M. O'Connor was toastmaster, and the following responded to toasts: Charles M. Belshaw, Ralph Jones, State Senator Edward I. Wolfe, Sheriff R. R. Veale, W. H. Humphrey, Chief Thomas R. Murphy, State Senator Thomas Finn, James Rogers, George E. Gallagher, Charles H. Brennan and Leo Torrey.

Those who gathered to bid Bermingham farewell were: M. R. Jones, W. L. Oliver, Warren McBryde, Leo Torrey, C. M. Belshaw, W. H. George, Sheriff Veale, James Rogers, Willie Veale, Howard Veale, Louis Hart, A. E. McKinley, Louis Luscomb, William H. Levens, Frederick Meyer, George Fordner, James Hughes, W. H. Humphrey, Carlton Wall, Samuel Bermingham, Captain Timothy Harrington, Martin Murphy, Captain Henry Gleason, Justice Frank H. Kerrigan, Judge J. P. Davis, W. E. Eastman, B. Schapiro, Maude D. Bohn, State Senator Edward Wolfe, Chief Thor R. Murphy, Julian Kominaky, H. M. Graney, Frank Daroux, Thomas M. O'Connor, George E. Gallagher, P. J. Mehegan, Isaac Simmons, William Finnegan, John Belshaw, J. P. Wallace, C. H. Brennan, John Fitzgerald, Matthew Tierney, John Wolf, Charles Sweeney, Rev. Father H. L. Stark, Louis Strodt, William Mosser, Matt O'Day.

JAILED FIVE HOURS AFTER RELEASE

Five hours after his release from San Quentin, E. H. Loderen, a forger, came to Richmond Thursday afternoon and got drunk.

Dr. F. W. Chandler had received word from Loderen's mother in the West to look out for her son, whom she thought as his release would come to Richmond. Chandler found Loderen already in the hole of the law. A Chandler's arrest he was held until late yesterday afternoon, when he was put on board an Orient bound steamer. He will be away from the cause of his downfall for a few months.

LABOR IS FOR PEACE FIRST SAYS COMPERS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Samuel Compers, president of the American Federation of Labor, last night issued the following statement "on the present international situation":

"My opinion is that regardless of what honorable position the United States may take, the effort will be made to drag us into the international conflict whether we like it or not. It is a great pity that there is not greater publicity regarding international relations and diplomatic communications, so that the people may be in a position to form their judgment not after, but previous to, definite action being taken. I suppose, however, that this thought can only find its acceptance when more normal conditions shall prevail. The influence of the American Federation of Labor, of the workers of the country, will be exerted for the maintenance of peace, and yet we cannot permit to be challenged that the lives of Americans shall not be unnecessarily and unwarrantably jeopardized."

FOURTH OF JUNE IS PLAYED.

The fourth of the five-game series of whitest tournaments being held by the Pythian Sisters, was played yesterday afternoon at the Pythian Casino. Mrs. H. Dean and Mrs. P. S. Schach were the prize winners.

CHICAGO CAR MEN ARE FIRM

CHICAGO, June 11.—W. D. Mahon, international president of the Street Carman's Union, arrived here today, and took charge of the local situation, which threatens to tie up every street car and elevated line in the city. Mr. Mahon said that one thing was certain and that was that the men must be granted substantial wage advances.

FALSTER STILL AT LIBERTY

The search of the local police for Henry C. Falster, wanted for brutally assaulting his wife Thursday evening, continued all day yesterday. Chief of Police Walker was on the trail from early morn until late evening and at one time was but twenty minutes behind Falster when he lost the train again.

All of the local officers know Falster and his apprehension is expected hourly.

Mrs. H. C. Falster, suffering in all a broken jaw, four lost teeth and the bones of her left hand broken, was taken to the county hospital yesterday afternoon.

Edwin and Ester Huston arrived Thursday in Franklin, Pa., where they will spend several weeks visiting with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Huston, Sr.

O'Brien, Al Morrison, State Senator Thomas Finn, Karl Anderson and Ed die O'Day.

Property Owners Of Tenth Street Solid Against Bitulithic

Richmond residents on Tenth street, between Barrett and Pennsylvania avenues, are lined up to the last man and woman in the ultimatum to the city council demanding that Richmond standard macadam be laid in front of their property instead of the curbside priced bitulithic pavement, which has been specified in resolutions adopted by the council.

Two petitions to the city council have been ignored, despite the fact that the petitions have represented the majority of the property owners along the affected section of the street. One petition was in January, 1914, and the second one was presented in March of this year.

Another petition, the third one, was filed with the city clerk on last Monday noon by Walter Poway, 238 Tenth street. The petition is signed by 25 residents of the two blocks of Tenth street, which protest the action of the council. Over seventy-five per cent of the property owners have willingly signed the petition, which is couched in strong terms.

The petition states that the property owners absolutely refused to pay for bitulithic pavement, that they prefer the Richmond standard macadam, and that they desire to have the work done this summer, as the street not being equipped with gutters becomes a "job-lolly of mud" in the wet season.

Among the prominent business men who have signed the petition are: H. Scharkopf of the Craven hospital, J. G. Utterstrom of the Tenth street grocery, G. Messerle of the Messerle and Evans apartments, and Joe Fallozzi, fireman for Contractor Coughlin. Not a single property owner approached by Mr. and Mrs. Poway, who circulated the petition, refused to sign the petition. All were willing and anxious to do so.

Several of the property owners reside in distant places in Nevada, Washington and Oregon, and even in New York, and the limited time made it impossible to forward the petition to them for their signatures. But communications from them commend and endorse the action taken by the Richmond residents.

The attempt to force the Tenth street residents to accept bitulithic pavement at a cost almost double that of standard macadam is one of the typical attempts to boost the asphalt game, that the Daily News has fought hard.

There is comparatively no heavy traffic on Tenth street. The standard macadam will serve EVERY BUS AS WELL as the bitulithic IF IT IS LAID PROPERLY.

And if it isn't laid properly, SOMEBODY CRAFTS.

There is absolutely no question but Standard macadam is the proper pavement for Tenth street.

If it will pay the people of Richmond to watch the council carefully in this Tenth street matter.

The matter will probably come before the council Monday.

NOTE TO ENGLAND WILL BE FIRM AS ONE TO GERMANY

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The new American note to Great Britain on the rights of neutral commerce will make the same demand of that government that the United States has already made of Germany.

namely, that she shall adhere to the recognized principles of international law in her treatment of Americans and their property.

THE MENACE OF A PRIVATE ARMY.

The hearings of the Commission on Industrial Relations, which dealt with the labor policies of the Pennsylvania Railroad, brought out the significance of the power of a corporation which is known as corporation police. The men in the Pennsylvania Railroad police department are commissioned by the various state government and authorized to make arrests. According to the company's statement the police are for the following purposes: To protect the property of the company against carelessness, negligence, malicious mischief, depredations and fire; to guard passengers against pickpockets and other thieves and the practices of gamblers; to guard the freight traffic from theft, loss and damage; to assist in gathering facts in cases of personal injury and other claims; to preserve order upon the premises of the company and upon its trains; and to aid in quelling any disturbance that might arise upon company property and to uphold and enforce the law in so far as the company's interests are involved.

The superintendent of police of the Pennsylvania Railroad stated that the road has 395 men in its private police force, practically all of whom exercise police power delegated to them by states and cities. In addition there are 290 watchmen who are added to the police service when needed. These men are armed with revolvers and leather clubs. The clubs are manufactured in the company's shops.

The menace is further revealed in the organization of the police department, which consists partly of uniformed men and partly of plain clothes men including Pinkerton detectives. The Pennsylvania Railroad maintains war supplies—or as its vice president answered the query, holds itself in readiness to deal with anything that would prevent operation of trains. The Pinkerton detectives keep the officials informed of all organization movements among the employees. This information from the detective spies enables the company to maintain its open shop policy toward all employees not in transportation service—forewarned is forearmed.

During one year $800,000 was expended to maintain the Pennsylvania Railroad police department. The company makes such an enormous expenditure because it fears organization. It knows that organized men will resist arbitrary treatment and injustice. It knows that organized men will insist upon fair, equitable treatment and a voice in determining terms of work. The Pennsylvania Railroad wishes to keep its men submissive, powerless. Organization gives power.

The principle involved in this right delegated to a private company to maintain corporation police is of grave concern not only to all the working people of our country, but to all who have regard for humanity, justice and orderly government.

This right enabled the coal barons of West Virginia and of Colorado to fortify, arm and garrison their property against employees who demand justice and the protection of law.

This power has enabled the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company to wage a civil war with supreme disregard for public opinion or humanity. It has enabled corporations to put their hands upon the summations of war, to appropriate the state agencies for force and to maintain themselves independent of state authority.

The state cannot delegate the right to exercise coercion or to use armed force without danger to the maintenance of civil government and democratic institutions.—American Federationist.

the most effective methods of holding men responsible to platform pledges and pre-election promises. It is used by the American Federation of Labor in keeping tabs on national legislators. It is used by the State Federation of Labor in ascertaining who are the "real" and who are the "fake" friends of labor; and finally it is used by the local Labor Councils in gauging the value of supervisors, aldermen or councilmen.

Yet, we have here a labor lobbyist who recommends a discontinuance of this fair and effective weapon "because it has caused hard feeling toward labor." To be really consistent and logical he ought to recommend a discontinuance of all agitation and organizing because both have caused hard feeling toward labor. Bot enough of this. When a labor representative pleads for those who nurse a hard feeling against labor because the naked truth has been told about their antics, nothing further needs be said. It is to be hoped that the San Francisco Labor Council will make short shrift of this recommendation.

LOCAL EAGLES TO ATTEND CONVENTION

The local drum corps of the Eagles headed by Major George Kennedy, will attend the Field Music convention of the F. O. E. in San Jose July 3, 4 and 5.

FINE TALENT IS SIGNED BY BILL FOR CHEEK CUBS

Bill Malone is sure there at signing up high class talent. The latest acquisitions to his fast Cheek Cubs are Blankenship and Hyatt, both stellar ball players. Pinkerton also took the berth of permanent pitcher for the Cubs yesterday.

The exceedingly augmented Cubs team will go into action with the Lavadero Athletics of San Francisco at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on the Cheek diamond, Tenth and Lucas.

ELKS TO ATTEND TAGGART FUNERAL

THE INCOMPETENCE OF YOUR UNCLE SAMUEL

By Burton Bralley.
Poor, old incompetent U. S. A. he can't do things in a business way. Just think, for instance, where we'd be at if he ran railroads and things like that.

No pool and rebates, no Wall Street game, no "railroad wreckers" to win to fame. Think of the "injury done the land" if Samuel took the lines in hand. "Business" would certainly get a slam from poor, incompetent Uncle Sam!

Poor, old incompetent U. S. A., he can't do things in a business way. "Panama"—yes, he digs the ditch, but is that making "big business" rich? And the postal service—that's handy, too, for common people like me and you, but it isn't done in a "business style," to heap up higher some magnet's pile.

So let all sensible folk beware of leaving things in your Uncle's care, for he'd run them so that the common folk would be something more than a silly joke.

He'd fight the wolf and protect the lamb, would "poor, incompetent" Uncle Sam.

Mrs. R. L. Rockwood and daughter, Wilma, left Thursday night for Kansas City, Kan., where they will spend a month with relatives. They will return with Mrs. J. R. Leverage, daughter of W. W. Norton of Richmond.

THE PARROT.

The legislative representative of the San Francisco Labor Council made a remarkable report to that body after his return from Sacramento. The S. F. Labor Council's Sacramento representative is a lawyer. That probably explains the report.

Paul Scharrenberg, secretary of the State Federation and representative of that organization at Sacramento, doesn't agree with the report, either. Brother Paul says all the things we wanted to say, as follows:

Some very remarkable statements appear in this report. It is asserted, for example, "that labor can more readily secure the legislators' support by courteous treatment and argument than by threat and intimidation." With this naive declaration no one can have any quarrel. The question naturally arises, however, why was it incorporated in the report? Is labor in California guilty of threatening and intimidating members of the Legislature, or is this labor lobbyist merely, parrot-like, repeating the remarks of the reactionaries who are looking for an excuse to justify their votes against labor?

As a climax to his report, the Labor Council's representative makes some startling recommendations. Among these is the following gem:

"That the State Federation of Labor be requested to discontinue getting up a 'roll call record,' as it has caused more hard feeling toward labor than any other single thing I know of."

A "roll call record" is nothing more and nothing less than a digest of the daily journals which truthfully and faithfully record the performance of our legislators. The "roll call record" as compiled by the State Federation of Labor's legislative committee furnishes absolutely reliable information to the working people as to "Who is Who" in the state's lawmaking body. It totally eliminates the old-time method of passing the "glib hand" and peddling the "big bull" about "I am a friend (?! ) of labor." It tells the truth and nothing but the truth. It is everywhere recognized as one of

SPORT HAPPENINGS IN THE SPORTING WORLD DIARY

OLSEN-RITCHIE SCRAP CALLED OFF BY FLOYD 400 CHICKENS HERE TOMORROW

Kirby Floyd, local fight promoter, yesterday went to San Francisco and called off the Ritchie-Olsen go.

Floyd declares that Olsen is a simple pure professional and for that reason, refuses to match him with an amateur fighter.

"I know the fans would like to see Ritchie in action," said Floyd. "I am looking for an opponent for him. But under no condition will I permit a professional to box for me."

Floyd is waiting around now for a clever amateur to send against Ritchie.

He says that Olsen has been fighting for years and has met some of the best heavies in the country. His real name is Belmont, according to Floyd, and he has met such men as Jess Willard, Jim Flynn and others.

Floyd says Olsen drew twice with Willard. The writer is inclined to believe that he was playing possum when he drew such a pair.

However, Floyd says Olsen is a pro. So he won't fight Ritchie.

If a thousand cheering fans spur 16 prime exponents of the national pastime to deeds of valor and skill, the game tomorrow afternoon at Luce Park should be a high mark in local baseball history.

General Healey yesterday wired General Luce to arrange for street car transportation for 400 Petaluma poultry fanciers, from the new ferry to the center of our metropolis. Bill Brown of Wells Fargo thought they were bringing their hens along with them, and volunteered the use of a dozen chicken coops. Thanks, Bill, but they are not needed.

Union men, we are all doing it, sending out girls to Mayer's American Cleaning Co. to be cleaned of cigarette smoke. Phone 452, 1115 Macdonald ave. 5-17-15 adv.

SPORTING GOULASH

Jimmy Connick, Neely O'Hara's Valjejo cousin, who grabs the grass cutters for the Blanco and O'Keefe, has been signed to play with Port Costa for the remainder of the season.

Kaust, oldest established Richmond shoe dealer. Why? Reliable shoes at reasonable prices. Repairs guaranteed. 1115 Macdonald.

Tonight Wood and Larripa bowl on the Point alley.

Lou Guisto, one time Sage Hen first sacker and heavy sticker, will not caper for Petaluma any more. He has gone to Eureka, where he will play ball.

Shoe workers are unanimous in their praise of the high quality leather put into Florsheim shoes. Sold by Jones, Adison & McCracken. 11-adv

Petaluma must think that Walt McCredie of the Coast League Beavers is off his fodder. They persist in saying that "Babe" Hollis, their horseshoe hurler, is being eagerly sought by the Beaver manager. Hollis writes Healey that he is continually being invited to visit McCredie. Maybe McCredie wants to find where he gets his brand of horseshoes.
